

James Lindley

James Franklin Lindley
1940 ~ 2013

James Franklin Lindley, 72, of Boise, Idaho passed away on Wednesday, March 6, 2013, at his home surrounded by loved ones after a courageous battle with lung cancer. James was born in Glens Ferry, Idaho on December 29, 1940 to Glen Lindley and Rula Johnson/Fahrer; he is the older of two children. He graduated from Borah High School in Boise. James served in the Army from July 21, 1966 - June 24, 1972. James is survived by his wife Denise of 16 years; daughters, Kimberley Rosin, Kelley Figg, and Tracey Hammond; as well as nine grandkids and three great grandkids; brother, Sam Lindley; and stepfather, John Fahrer.

James is preceded in death by his parents, Glenn Lindley and Rula Fahrer.

James loved the great outdoors, hunting, fishing, camping, and was passionate about spending time with family and friends. Riding his motorcycle on the open road was exhilarating for him. James loved solitude and nature, he could build anything; was creative with his hands and loved to walk along the Boise River and collect unusual shaped branches in which he would make treasures for his loved ones.

Denise, his wife, never left his side during his courageous battle with lung cancer. Her faith and diligence helped him through his journey.

We want to give special thanks to the VA oncology unit for all their compassion and care.

We love you dad and will miss you dearly.
